Hour Law—Gold Transfers, &c.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

Washinoron, August 2.—The Secretary of State has sent to the United States delegates to the international monetary conference official notification of their appointment, as announced in yesterday's papers. Senators Allison and Jones, of the commission, held a conference with the Secretary to-day respecting the organization of the commission, but it is understood no settlement was made.

The execution of the eight-hour-law as applied to the construction of public buildings has proved so embarrassing to the officials of the Treasury Department that the Attorney-General has been asked for a legal construction of the provisions of the act.

It is said that another shipment east of a similar amount, and perhaps two more shipments will be made from Sai Francisco to the official of their application of their application of the gold he can lay his hands on. He and his assistant-Treasurer Ellis H. Roberts, who has charge of the sub-Treasury in this city, where the train-load of gold will be safely stored away, said this morning: "Last night we had in the vaults $121,-600,000,000 of which $43,000,000 was gold, so when the $20,000,000 in the valuts there will be no more large transfers of gold from San Francisco to New York or elsewhere for a long time to come, and not even then unless some unforeseen emergency should arise.

Nashville, Tenn., Angust 2.—The State Democratic Convention assembled at noon and elected E. L. Bullock temporary chairman, and George W. Ochs secretary. The usual committees were appointed, and the convention adjourned till afternoon.

The convention has nothing to do except to nominate Judge Peter Turney, the only Democratic candidate for Governor, thereby ratifying the action of primaries. Governor Buchanan, Alliance-Democrat, withdrew his name from consideration by this convention several days ago, it being evident that Turney had secured a majority of the votes at the primaries. It is thought the absent delegates, about 500 or 650 in number, are opposed to Turney, and will not support him if Governor Buchanan will run as an independent.

A statement from Knoxville this morning, which may have some political significance, was that efforts are to be made to have the Alliance support Winstead, the Republican candidate for Governor, and that in return the Republicans of the Legislature. Thus an effort will be made to control that body, and if successful Buchanan will be elected to the United States Senate.

The team from the Monumental City left for home in the morning. No reason has been assigned for the cancelling of the game. Monday's experience was doubtless sufficient for the visitors, who are not likely to come here again, as no Virginia club will care to meet them.

Yesterday was one of the most oppressive days of the year. There was very little breeze stirring until late in the afternoon, and at times the temperature came near reaching the 100 point. No cases of sunstroke were reported, though there were several cases in which laborers had to quit work.

Unusual pressure was brought to bear to the Governor during the past few days. Petitions signed by thousands from Tennessee and Kentucky reached the Chief Executive. Delegations from military and civic societies besieged him, and the wife and daughter of the condemned man, and the wives and daughters of other prominent entirens made personal appeals. Senator Harris and other leading politicians made several calls upon him, and finally succeeded in securing the desired commutation.

The prisoner heard the news with but little interest. He has been indulging in stimulants of late, and seemed indifferent to what was transpiring.

Condition of the Various Bonds and Se-

The directors of the Richmond Terminal and the Richmond and Danville will meet on Wednesday the 10th, says the New York World of the preceding date, and try to get some sort of order out of the chaos into which matters have drifted. Every day sees a rising tide of opposition to the multiplying of committees that make suggestions and go no further through want of power, push, or personsal interest. Yesterday John Bloodgood issued a call for holders of the 5 per cent, Richmond Terminal bonds to report at his office for concerted action. He says of the situation of their bonds:

Winning the $16,440 prize in the common—set of canters. In fact, it was no race at all as far as first money was concerned. Don Alonzo covered the six furlongs in 1:12½.

The majority of the spectators had put their wagers on Lady Violet, a 13 to 5 favorite, and the winner, who was well backed by his stable followers at 7 to 2, did not receive the applause that his performance merited.

St. Louis, August 2.—A most startling climax to the action for libel recently begun by Judge James C. Nermile, of the St. Louis Criminal Court, against the Post-Dispatch, of this city, came this forenoon a little before 11 o'clock in the suicide by poisen of the plaintiff, Judge Normile, at his residence, 1422 Washington avenue. Criticism of the administration of Judge Normile's court was precipitated recently by a suden division in the grand jury acting under him, eight of its members alleging that four had combined to prevent the indictment of persons with a "pull." The matter was brought before Judge Normile through commissioners of the contending factions, and the Judge's conduct in the matter led to charges and criticism on the part of the Post-Dispatch, which culminated in the Judge bringing suits for sums aggregating $400,000 against the paper attacking him, and also instituting criminal libel actions against three of the paper's responsible editors—Florence D. White, chief, and Samuel Williams and George S. Johns, assistants—there being six counts in each warrant.

After this action Judge Normile left the city for a short rest. Returning a day or two since, he appeared yesterday before the master appointed to take depositions in his libel suits. He was on the stand most of the day, and was much disturbed by the close, sharp questioning, and the tilts between the contending counsel. However, no one thought of any serious effect upon the Judge's mins, and the
